What is Red Points?

Red Points is the most widely used solution to recover digital revenue.

Over 1.000 companies rely on our platform to fight counterfeits, piracy, impersonation, and distribution abuse. They leverage Red Points to take back the revenue that's rightfully theirs.

With 300+ professionals and offices in New York, Barcelona, Beijing, and Salt Lake City, Red Points has disrupted an industry traditionally led by service providers with a scalable, cost-effective solution.

Red Points' portfolio is composed of 6 solutions:

- Brand Protection
- Impersonation Removal
- Anti Piracy
- Social Video Growth
- Seller Tracking
- Domain Management

Mission and Vision

Red Points' mission is to make the Internet a safer place for brands and consumers. Thanks to Artificial Intelligence Red Points has transformed an industry traditionally led by intellectual property lawyers and services-focused companies into a scalable, cost-effective solution to cut online infringements at the source.

Our vision is to become the first technological standard for online distribution, monitoring, and protection.
